

Camp Scholarship Program:

We want our camps to be available to all students, regardless of financial circumstance. Therefore, each year we offer a limited number of scholarships to deserving students with a demonstrated interest in the arts who are unable to attend for financial reasons. Application forms are available online at: www.shakespearerocks.com or by calling us at 905-450-2164. In order to qualify for a scholarship, the completed form must be in our office by June 15, 2008.

Our scholarship program receives no government or corporate funding, but relies on the generosity of individuals. If you are interested in sponsoring a child to attend our camps, please call (905)450-2164.

Camp Instructors:

The camp and final presentations are directed by Rochelle Douris, MFA, Artistic Director of the UCRC and an accomplished writer, director and actor in both Canada and the United States. Her talented and experienced creative and educational team includes Ann Weir, BEd, Director of Education and Zoe Sweet, BFA, Acting Teacher, Corey Payette, Vocal Coach and Maytal Kowlaski, Dance and Movement.

Welcome to the Zone!

Friendship, laughter and a love of performing have been at the heart of every Shakespeare Zone drama camp since 2001. Our previous homes have included The Hummingbird Centre, the St. Lawrence Centre and the CanStage Theatre on Berkeley Street. This year, we bring our "outstanding day-camp experience..." to the heart of The Annex. Young people aged 7 through 16 will explore the best of Broadway at our BROADWAY ZONE musical theatre camp or travel to a mystical island of magic and mirth with Shakespeare's timeless classic, THE TEMPEST. Classes in acting, improvisation and stagecraft will be featured at both camps, with additional singing and dance instruction available at The Broadway Zone.

Each session will end with a final staged presentation at the beautifully-restored Walmer Centre Theatre, the site of this summer's highly anticipated Annex Summer Repertory season.

Campers will be split into three age groups for some classes, approaching each subject at an age-appropriate level. Then EVERYONE will come together and play a role in the final production for friends and family. Even the very shy, the very young and those without stage experience can feel at home at the Zone. And older campers with more experience will be given the chance to challenge themselves and expand the boundaries of their abilities through advanced acting classes and performance opportunities.

*"I count myself in nothing else so happy
As in a soul remembering my good friends."
Richard II Act 2: Scene 3*
